Congratulations! You passed!

Grade received 100% To pass 80% or higher

Go to next item

1/1 point

	1.	After you finish giving a presentation, an audience member asks your team for additional information on your topic. Your coworker is answering the question thoroughly, but you notice that the rest of your audience has tuned out. How can you re-engage your audience? Select all that apply.
		☐ Interrupt your coworker
		Redirect to a new question
		 Correct If you notice your audience is losing interest, you can redirect to a new question or ask a question audience to re-engage them. 	on to your
		Repeat the question
		Ask a question to the audience
		 Correct If you notice your audience is losing interest, you can redirect to a new question or ask a questi- audience to re-engage them. 	on to your
		estion from an audience member, who then seems confused. You conclude that you didn't juestion. What should you have done differently to avoid the issue? Select all that apply.	1/1 point Listened to the full question nario, two actions could have assisted you in answering the question: listen to the full question he question to clarify. These strategies can help you answer a question directly and completely.
	☐ Provided more context for their answer
	Repeated the	e question to clarify
		nario, two actions could have assisted you in answering the question: listen to the full question he question to clarify. These strategies can help you answer a question directly and completely.
	☐ Elaborated n	nore on the topic
3.	Your audience h all. How should	as several questions after your presentation, and you may not have enough time to answer them you proceed?	1/1 point
	Repeat each	question
	O Involve the	whole audience
	O Understand the context of each question
	Keep responses brief and follow up after the presentation question (r more questions in less time, keep each response brief and to the point. This way, you answer a directly and have more time to move onto the next one. After the Q&A, you can follow up with ions that still need clarification.		