5.	<ul> <li>A data analyst chooses not to use external data because it represents diverse perspectives. This is an decision when working with external data.</li> </ul>	appropriate
	O True
	False
	Correct External data representing diverse perspectives is not an appropriate reason to choose not to udataset. A data analyst might choose not to use external data if the it cannot be confirmed to be
6.	A data analyst reviews a national database of movie theater showings. They want to find the first movies shown in San Francisco in 2001. How can they organize the data to return the first 10 movies shown at the top of their list? Select all that apply.	1 / 1 point
	Filter out showings outside of San Francisco
	○ Correct The analyst can filter out showings outside of San Francisco in 2001 and sort by date in ascending order.
	Sort by date in descending order
	Filter out showings not in 2001
	○ Correct     The analyst can filter out showings outside of San Francisco in 2001 and sort by date in ascending order.
	Sort by date in ascending order
	Correct The analyst can filter out showings outside of San Francisco in 2001 and sort by date in ascending order.
7. When wr	iting a query, the name of the dataset can either be inside two backticks, or not, and the query will still 1/1 point erly.
True  False
⊘ Cor Wh
	8. You are working with a database table that contains customer data. The state column lists the state where each  1/1 point customer is located. The state names are abbreviated. You want to find out which customers are located in the state of Florida (FL).
	You write the SQL query below. Add a WHERE clause that will return only customers located in FL.  1 SELECT 2 count ()
	3 FROM 4 customer 5 where state = 'FL' Reset
	count(*)     1
	How many customers are located in FL?

431

1 / 1 poin